Which kind of projects are you looking for?	We seek to participate in projects within the field of contemporary arts, particularly those involving

	interdisciplinary interactions between visual arts, art installations, urban interventions, and exhibitions that foster audience engagement and democratise art. Our interests include developing themes such as art and community, participation, and the creation of artistic objects that transcend traditional disciplinary boundaries. Our core values are rooted in diversity, encompassing social, racial, and artistic dimensions. We are committed to engaging in projects that align with these principles.
