Proposed Creative Europe project – to which project are you looking for partners?

Sector or field	Visual Arts, with a focus on contemporary exhibitions and promoting emerging European talent.
Description or summary of the proposed project	The project seeks to foster the international circulation of emerging European artists through traveling exhibitions in collaboration with galleries, museums, and cultural spaces across various countries. It will also include artist residencies, collaborative workshops, roundtable discussions, and the creation of a digital catalog to promote sustainability and inclusive access to art. These activities will provide opportunities for artists to engage with new audiences, exchange ideas, and explore innovative practices while contributing to the growth of a more interconnected European cultural scene.
