

FUTURE FOR RELIGIOUS HERITAGE

The European network of historic places of worship

Co-funded by the European Union

1. Mission

Future for Religious Heritage (FRH) is a non-faith, non-profit European network founded in 2011 to promote and safeguard historic places of worship, bringing together organisations and individuals in an international organisation engaged in multi-level forums and events to bring the voice of religious heritage to relevant stakeholders and policymakers.

2. The Network

+ 200 members
+ 52 countries

Religious heritage importance

The survey

FRH commissioned a Europe-wide survey in October 2023 to know the perception of European citizens of religious heritage across the continent and how they relate to it. This survey followed up on a previous survey from 2014.

Methodology

The survey was conducted in October 2023 by Savanta, one of the UK's main data and research companies offering opinion polling and fast survey services. It was run online on 8,000 Europeans in 8 countries (1,000 contestants per country): France, Germany, Greece, Poland, Romania, Spain, Sweden and the United Kingdom.

3. Our activities

3.1 Biennial Conferences

FRH Conferences analyse the current scenario of religious heritage in Europe, sharing examples of good practice at local, national and international levels and feeding the debate on the most urgent issues from an interdisciplinary perspective. These conferences are organised in collaboration with an FRH member who acts as a local partner.

Upcoming conference:

Title: Future-proofing religious heritage (TBC)

Dates: 22-23 October 2026

Location: Leuven, Belgium

Sub-themes:

- 1) Ownership of Religious Heritage
- 2) The Holistic Approach
- 3) Policies and Instruments Across Europe

3.3 Awareness raising

Run for Heritage

The Run for Heritage campaign (2021-2023) combined sports and religious heritage through fun, educational activities that invite young people to discover their historic places of worship, a part of their heritage that often goes unnoticed.

Religious Heritage Innovator of the Year

This award celebrates excellence and innovation in religious heritage by recognising every year five outstanding contributions to the understanding, safeguarding, enhancement and/or promotion of Europe's places of worship.

FRH Photo Competition

The world is full of unknown religious architectural wonders, fascinating artefacts, and unique celebrations. Every year the FRH Photo Competition selects the 9 best photographs of religious heritage from around the globe.
